Mātāpono pōti- Electoral principles

Key message

The electoral principles contained in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 are outlined below for candidate information. These principles must be taken into account in the conduct of any election or poll.

Principles

- (1) The principles that this Act is designed to implement are the following:
 - aa. representative and substantial electoral participation in local elections and polls.
 - a. fair and effective representation for individuals and communities.
 - b. all qualified persons have a reasonable and equal opportunity to:
 - i. cast an informed vote;
 - ii. nominate 1 or more candidates;
 - iii. accept nomination as a candidate.
- c. public confidence in, and public understanding of, local electoral processes through:
 - i. the provision of a regular election cycle;
 - ii. the provision of elections that are managed independently from the elected body;
 - iii. protection of the freedom of choice of voters and the secrecy of the vote;
 - iv. the provision of transparent electoral systems and voting methods and the adoption of procedures that produce certainty in electoral outcomes;
 - v. the provision of impartial mechanisms for resolving disputed elections and polls.
- (2) Local authorities, electoral officers, and other electoral officials must, in making decisions under this Act or any other enactment, take into account those principles specified in subsection (1) that are applicable (if any), so far as is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) This section does not override any other provision in this Act or any other enactment.

Whakatureture pōti - Electoral legislation

Key message

All local government elections are required to be conducted strictly following legislation.

Legislation to be followed

- Local Electoral Act 2001;
- Local Electoral Regulations 2001;
- Local Government Act 2002;
- Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968.

Full copies of the above legislation are available online at www.legislation.govt.nz.

Ngā Wāri me ngā Pae Māori - Māori wards and constituencies polls

Key message

Following the introduction of the Local Government (Electoral Legislation and Māori Wards and Māori Constituencies) Amendment Act 2024, any council (city, district or region) that established Māori wards or constituencies since 2020 without holding a poll, is required to hold a poll with their 2025 elections.

The poll, for all electors, is a vote to KEEP or REMOVE Māori wards or constituencies for the relevant council.

The outcome of the poll is binding and will apply for at least the next two triennial elections (2028 and 2031).

Kawerau District Council established Māori wards in 2023 (by resolution), and as such, is required to hold a poll with their 2025 election.

The Kawerau District Council is required to be neutral on this poll.

Progress, preliminary and final results of the poll will be released alongside the election results.

Key message

The electoral system to be used for the 2025 elections is First Past the Post (FPP).

Those local government organisations holding elections within the Kawerau District Council area using the FPP electoral system are:

- Kawerau District Council
- Bay of Plenty Regional Council

Understanding FPP

When you vote in an FPP election, you tick the name of the candidates(s) you most prefer, up to the number of vacancies.

When the votes are counted, the candidates(s) with the most votes is/are elected.

If there is one vacancy, you can vote for one candidate.

If there are three vacancies, you can vote for up to three candidates.

Māraurau mō te kaitono pōri - Candidate eligibility

Key message

A candidate for the Kawerau District Council and the Bay of Plenty Regional Council must be:

- a New Zealand citizen; and
- a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand); [Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district.

For example, a person standing for the Kawerau General Ward must be a New Zealand citizen, a parliamentary elector (from either the general or Māori electoral roll) and nominated by two electors whose names appear on the general electoral roll within the Kawerau General Ward.

Similarly, a person standing for the Kawerau Māori Ward must be a New Zealand citizen, a parliamentary elector (from either the Māori or general electoral roll) and nominated by two electors whose names appear on the Māori electoral roll within the Kawerau Māori Ward.

A person standing for the position of 'at large' councillor must be a New Zealand citizen, a parliamentary elector (from either the Māori or general electoral roll) and nominated by two electors whose names appear on either the Māori or general electoral roll within the Kawerau District.

Candidate restrictions

Restrictions on a candidate for the Kawerau District Council and the Bay of Plenty Regional Council are:

- a candidate may seek nomination for mayor and council but if elected to both, the mayoral position is filled and the council position is vacated (with the next highest polling candidate elected).

- a candidate may seek nomination for mayor and council but cannot also seek nomination for the Bay of Plenty Regional Council, i.e. a candidate may stand for Kawerau District Council or the Bay of Plenty Regional Council, but not both. [Section 58 Local Electoral Act 2001]
- a candidate may stand for one ward only (not multiple wards or for a ward and an 'at large' position).
- a candidate for mayor or council (or candidate's spouse) cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with the Kawerau District Council. [Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968] This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from Audit New Zealand is sought.
- an employee of the Kawerau District Council who is elected as mayor or councillor must resign from their position as an employee of the Kawerau District Council before taking up their position. An employee will need to alert the Chief Executive of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged. [Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002]

 - d. must comply with any prescribed requirements; and

- a. specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and

- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—
- a. fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the period specified in subsection (4)(b); or
 - b. submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (6) An electoral officer -
- a. is not required to verify or investigate any information included in a candidate profile statement;
 - b. may include, in or with any candidate profile statement that is published, displayed, or distributed, any disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the statement that the electoral officer considers appropriate;
 - c. is not liable in respect of -
 - i. any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
 - ii. the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific ward).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the Council Office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated)'.

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations.

Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence; or
- are likely to confuse or mislead electors; or
- are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(2) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

Completing and submitting your nomination paper online

Candidates using the online nominations at esp.electionservices.co.nz/lge2025/KW will be required to create an account (username and password) before selecting and starting their nomination.

This allows candidates to progressively complete their nomination. Any progress can be saved and accessed again at a later date before nominations close.

Candidates will be required to enter details of their two nominators directly into the portal including their full name, residential address (as they appear on the parliamentary roll) and email address.

An email will be sent to both nominators, requesting confirmation that they support the candidate's nomination.

The nominators will be required to follow the link contained within the email, confirm their details and consent to nominate, and electronically sign their name.

If completing and submitting a nomination paper online, candidates will need to provide (and upload to the portal):

- proof of payment of their $200 nomination deposit (eg. evidence of bank transfer);
- evidence of NZ citizenship;
- passport-sized colour photo (optional);
- letter endorsing affiliation (if applicable).

A candidate will only be able to submit their nomination once they have completed all required fields and their two nominators have completed their parts, confirming that they support the candidate's nomination.

If submitting a nomination online, it is recommended that candidates are prepared with this information and start the process early.

A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgment that the nomination paper is in order.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on the Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. ward).

Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections).

Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by electronic bank transfer, eftpos or cash. Evidence of an electronic bank transfer will be required to accompany the nomination.

Electronic bank payment details are:

Account name: Independent Election Services Ltd
Bank: ANZ
Account number: 01 0102 0437238 00
Particulars: your initials and surname
Code: KWDC
Reference: Nomination

The lodgement of nomination papers should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Candidates are encouraged to submit their nominations online, but nominations can also be returned by mail.

However, should a nomination be received by the electoral officer or an electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 1 August 2025). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination. [Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001]

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, an application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because they are suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001]

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

Registration to attend is not required.

Key message

Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day. However there are certain constraints candidates need to be aware of.

Election signs are permitted on private property, provided landowner permission is given.

Election signs are not permitted on any public place owned or controlled by the council.

All election signs can only be displayed two months before election day (from 11 August 2025) and must be removed by midnight 10 October 2025.

All signs must be erected in a stable fashion, not being a hazard to public or traffic safety. Council policy on election signs is detailed on page 28 of this handbook.

Campaigning

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, the council's logo, crest or branding, website, social media accounts, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. Candidates should however be aware of any council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Council's social media channels are council resources and must remain politically neutral at all times. Council will promote elections and the importance of standing, enrolling and voting but will not associate these posts with any candidates.

Council social media accounts will not follow any candidates. This may result in your account being unfollowed.

Council's social media accounts are not permitted to be used as a communications channel by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for promotion, electioneering or campaigning. This also applies to all social media accounts owned by council-controlled organisations.

Candidates should not post on council's social media channels, nor should they comment on, share or otherwise use council social media channels for electioneering. You may not rate, review, check-in or tag the council's social media channels in your own posts or comments.

Council's social media accounts are constantly monitored, and any campaign related or electioneering content, (including posts related to nominations and candidacy), will be removed immediately.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name and contact details of the person under whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001] This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/advertisement are authorised by [name], [contact details]'.

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 38 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the contact details of the person whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act].

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on a vehicle and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (1) No person may publish or cause to be published in any newspaper, periodical, notice, poster, pamphlet, handbill, billboard, or card, or broadcast or permit to be broadcast over any radio or television station, any advertisement that is used or appears to be used to promote or procure the election of a candidate at an election, unless subsection (2) or subsection (4) applies.
- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
 - a. the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than 1 candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name and contact details of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published.
- (3) A candidate is not responsible for an act committed by an agent without the consent or connivance of the candidate.

 - a. the publication of the advertisement is endorsed by an organisation or body representing residents or ratepayers in the community or district in which the advertisement is published; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out -
 - i. the true name and contact details of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published; and
 - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.
- (7) In this section, contact details means 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) a residential or business address;
 - (b) an email address;
 - (c) a post office box number;
 - (d) a phone number;
 - (e) a link to a page on an Internet site, if the page contains 1 or more of the contact details specified in paragraphs (a) to (d).

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply. The limits are set according to the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Every candidate must, by law, complete an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return declaring all donations and expenses and forward it to the electoral office by Thursday 11 December 2025.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise). These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

The population distribution for Kawerau District Council (population estimates as at 30 June 2024) is:

District	Population
Kawerau (at large)	7,820
Kawerau General Ward	4,390
Kawerau Māori Ward	3,430

source: Statistics New Zealand as at 30 June 2024

The expenditure limit for the mayor position is $7,000 (including GST), based on 7,820 population (as at 30 June 2024).

If a candidate is standing for more than one position (mayor and council) the limit of $7,000 applies (not the separate limits).

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (i.e. 11 July 2025 to 11 October 2025). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example, items sold at a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or
- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

b. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

c. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

d. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 11 December 2025). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out —

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation are -

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are —

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Key message

Council has a policy around election signs and candidates should familiarise themselves with this. Election signs are permitted two months before election day (from 11 August 2025) but must be removed by midnight 10 October 2025.

1. Background

In addition to making a bylaw to regulate the display of advertising signs generally, Council chooses to adopt a policy specifically for election signs. The policy is reviewed every three years before local elections to ensure it remains up to date.

2. Policy objective

The objective of this policy is to set out the standards that apply to signs used for general elections and to extend those standards to signs used for local elections.

3. Principle

This policy is guided by the principle that the rights and responsibilities for signs used for general elections should be extended to those used for local elections.

4. Definitions

Election sign (sign) for the purposes of this policy, means any sign, poster, billboard or hoarding that might reasonably be regarded as being used to encourage voters to vote or not vote for any candidate, party, view or position under contention at a general election, a referendum or a local election.

General election for the purposes of this policy, means any election (including a by-election) for one or more members of the New Zealand Parliament.

Local election means an election for member(s) of a territorial authority and/or regional council for whom registered electors in the Kawerau District are able to vote. At the commencement of this policy, the relevant bodies are the Kawerau District Council, and the Bay of Plenty Regional Council.

Referendum means a government-initiated referendum or a citizen-initiated referendum, which can be local, regional or nationwide.

Signs on vehicles vehicle advertising via magnetic or adhesive (i.e., vehicle wrap signage) is permitted under this policy and the relevant Council Bylaw, as long as the primary purpose is not advertising.

5. Policy statement

5.1 Policy application

In all other respects this policy extends the standards for general election signs as outlined in 5.1.1 to any local election signs used in the Kawerau District.

5.2 Location of election signs

Election signs are allowed on private property subject to the consent of the property owner.

Election signs are not allowed on any public place owned or controlled by Council.

No election sign is allowed near any road in the Kawerau District where Council considers the sign will:

- obstruct the line of sight of road users at any corner, bend, intersection or vehicle crossing;
- obstruct, obscure or impair motorists' view of any traffic sign or signal.

Signs on vehicles: vehicle signage shall be permitted, where the primary purpose is not advertising, except where the signage:

- obstruct the line of sight of road users at any corner, bend, intersection or vehicle crossing;

Signs must be securely braced from the ground up to carry wind loads for 60 days.

Council does not require a building consent for any election sign.

5.4 Removal of signs by Council

Council may remove any unauthorised, unsafe, damaged or otherwise non-compliant sign.

Sign owners are encouraged to ensure their signs are regularly monitored and that any damage is promptly remedied. Council may remove any damaged sign which has not been repaired within a period of 72 hours.

Any sign removed by Council shall be released to the owner upon payment of the applicable charges. Council may dispose of any sign which remains unclaimed or not released for a period exceeding one month.

5.5 Fees

Council does not charge fees for election signs.

Any actual and reasonable cost incurred in the removal and storage of any non-compliant sign will be recoverable as a debt against either the owner of the sign or the owner of the property where the sign was erected.

6. Relevant delegations

The Chief Executive Officer or nominee has delegated authority for the implementation of this policy.

Non-resident ratepayer electors

Residents who pay rates on a property in another local authority area may be entitled to enrol on the ratepayer electoral roll for that local authority area.

Companies, businesses, trusts, corporations or societies which are ratepayers of a property in a local authority district may also nominate an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the district where the property is situated.

Partners, joint tenants and tenants in common who collectively pay rates on a property in a local authority district may also nominate one of the group who is an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the area where the property is situated.

Preliminary electoral roll

A copy of the preliminary electoral roll for the Kawerau District Council will be available for public inspection from Friday 4 July 2025 to Friday 1 August 2025 at:

Any alterations to the residential electoral roll should be made by:

- phoning 0800 36 76 56; or

Final electoral roll

The final electoral roll is produced once the preliminary electoral roll closes on 1 August 2025. The final electoral roll contains the details used for issuing voting documents. Copies of this roll will also be available for purchase.

Roll data requests

Information contained on the electoral roll is not available from the electoral office in an electronic form, but candidates or political parties may request an electronic listing of resident electors from the Electoral Commission (provided the criteria of section 114 of the Electoral Act 1993 are met). An application form is required to be completed, and these are available upon request from the Electoral Commission.

Note however that elector details for the area a candidate is standing for only will be provided, and this data is unable to be passed on to any third-party and must be used for election purposes.

With regard to a listing of non-resident ratepayer electors, a candidate may purchase mailing labels and/or postal address lists from the electoral office.

Candidates or candidate scrutineers may request, before the close of voting, a listing of names of persons from whom voting documents have been returned. Such a request can be supplied in either hardcopy or electronic copy, and a reasonable charge will be made for this. [Section 68 (6) Local Electoral Act 2001]

Pōti me te pōti motuhake - Voting and special voting

Key message

The introduction of the Local Government (Electoral Legislation and Māori Wards and Māori Constituencies) Amendment Act 2024 has resulted in changes to the electoral timetable.

It allows a longer statutory delivery time for voting packs and creates a longer voting period to accommodate postal challenges.

The voting period is now just over four weeks (from Tuesday 9 September 2025 to noon Saturday 11 October 2025).

Voting packs are posted to electors from Tuesday 9 September 2025. Special votes are available to those who have not received an ordinary vote during the voting period.

Postal voting

The election is being conducted by postal vote. Voting documents are posted to all electors whose names appear on the final electoral roll with delivery commencing Tuesday 9 September 2025. All electors should have received their voting documents by Monday 22 September 2025.

Each elector, after receiving their voting document, should complete it, seal it in the return, replypaid envelope, and post or deliver it to the electoral officer.

Completed voting documents can also be lodged at:

- District Office, 2 Ranfurly Court, Kawerau;
- District Library, Jellicoe Court, Kawerau;
- Kawerau New World, Tarawera Court, Kawerau.

When posting voting documents back, it is recommended these be posted by 5pm, Tuesday 7 October 2025 to guarantee delivery before the close of voting (noon, Saturday 11 October 2025).

There is currently no online voting option for these elections.

Special votes

Special votes are available to electors:

- whose names do not appear on the final electoral roll, but who qualify as electors;
- who do not receive a voting document previously posted to them;
- who spoil or damage a voting document previously posted to them.

Special votes are available from Tuesday 9 September 2025 to noon, Saturday 11 October 2025 from:

- the District Office, 2 Ranfurly Court, Kawerau;
- phoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Special votes can be posted directly to electors. The completed voting document must be returned to the electoral officer by noon on election day.

Special votes require the completion of a statutory declaration. This is sent with the special vote and will require another elector to witness it. A declaration is a legal requirement and a protection for electors against possible duplicate voting.

If an elector requests a special vote and is not on the Parliamentary electoral roll (e.g. just turned 18 years of age), the person must enrol by Friday 10 October 2025 (the day before the close of voting). An application for registration as a Parliamentary elector may be obtained by:

- phoning 0800 36 76 56; or
- accessing the Electoral Commission website: www.vote.nz.

After voting closes, special vote declarations are forwarded to Registrars of Electors for verification that the elector is eligible and has enrolled as a Parliamentary elector.

Special votes cannot be collected by candidates or their assistants for distribution to electors.

Key message

All elected members of Kawerau District Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of council. At Kawerau District Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for council.
- (2) Understand council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.
