→ CANDIDATES

Q8: I want to be a candidate in these elections. What do I need to do?

A8: You must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

When lodging your nomination, proof of citizenship will be required (copy of passport, birth certificate, citizenship certificate). If your name on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll is different from your name on your proof of citizenship, you also need to provide proof of change of name.

You will need to have two electors enrolled on the electoral roll in the area you are standing for to nominate you –

e.g. if you stand for the Kawerau General Ward, the nominators will need to be enrolled on the general electoral roll for that ward. (Note the candidate does not need to reside in the area in which they are standing but that fact will appear in candidate information for electors.)

For information on nomination papers and the candidate information handbook refer Q25.

Candidate campaigning can commence any time prior to the election (no time restriction), but any expenditure made, within or outside the three-month applicable period before election day, must be accounted for.

Q9: How much will it cost me to stand?

A9: You will need to pay a nomination fee of $200 GST inclusive. This fee applies to each election (position) you stand for.

Your nomination fee can be paid by electronic bank transfer, EFTPOS, credit card or cash.

If you poll greater than 25% of the lowest polling successful candidate, you will receive your nomination fee back.

Q10: What qualifications and experience do I need?

A10: Nothing formal. Elected members come from all walks of life and generally have a desire to serve the community.

All (or some) of the following capabilities will be useful in the elected member role:

- \rightarrow quality decision-making;
- \rightarrow political acumen;
- → leadership;
- \rightarrow cultural awareness:
- → strategic thinking;
- → knowledge and understanding of Kawerau District Council and local government;
- → communication and engagement, relationship building and collaboration.

Q11: Does a criminal record affect a person standing as a Council candidate?

A11: No, not for the Kawerau District Council elections.

Q12: How long is the term of an elected member?

A12: Three years.

Q13: Do I need to be resident in the area I am standing for?

A13: No, but you must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand) and be a New Zealand citizen (by birth or citizenship ceremony). If you don't reside in the area you are standing for, this needs to be disclosed to electors.

The two people who nominate you must be on the electoral roll within the area you are standing for.

Q14: Do I need to be on the Māori Electoral Roll or of Māori descent if I am standing for election in the Māori ward?

A14: No. To be eligible you must be a New Zealand citizen and your name must be on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll (anywhere in New Zealand).

You will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the Māori Electoral Roll within the area of election for which you are standing.

If you are on the Māori Electoral Roll you can stand in a general ward, and will need to be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the General Electoral Roll within the area of election for which you are standing.

Q15: How many positions can I stand for?

A15: You can stand for mayor, and for an 'at large', general or Māori ward councillor, but if you are elected to more than one position you must take the highest ranked position.

You cannot stand for both the Kawerau District Council and the Bay of Plenty Regional Council.

Q16: Can I withdraw my nomination as a candidate?

A16: Only if it is withdrawn before the close of nominations (noon, Friday 1 August 2025). You cannot withdraw voluntarily after nominations have closed. If you decide to opt out, your name will still appear on the voting document.

If you do change your mind and decide not to run for election after you have been nominated, let the electoral officer know who will talk through the issues with you.

If you become incapacitated with serious illness or injury and are unlikely to be able to perform the functions and duties if elected to office, an application to withdraw your nomination on those grounds can be made. Verification from a doctor or lawyer about your situation will be required.

Contact the electoral officer if you need more information about this process.

Q17: What is a candidate profile statement?

A17: You may provide a candidate profile statement when you lodge your nomination. This is a statement of up to 150 words containing information about yourself and your policies and intentions if elected to office. The profile statement will be included in the voting packs that all electors receive.

Your candidate statement can be submitted in both Māori and English, but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent. Each language has to be within a 150-word limit.

In addition, your candidate profile statement must state whether or not your principal place of residence is in the area you are seeking election, e.g., 'My principal place of residence is in the Kawerau Māori Ward', or 'My principal place of residence is not in the Kawerau Māori Ward'. This is not part of the 150-word limit.

Your profile statement must be true and accurate. The electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in your statement.

Your profile can include a recent passport size and style colour photograph (taken in the last 12 months).

See the Local Electoral Act 2001, section 61 for more information.

Q18: When is the campaign period?

A18: Election campaigning can start at any time before the election and continue up to and including election day.

Refer $\underline{Q67}$ for information on campaign signage.

Q19: How much can I spend on my campaign?

A19: There is a limit on what you can spend on your campaign and it relates to the population of the area you are standing for.

The maximum amount that can be spent by a candidate cannot exceed the limits set out in the following table:

| Local government area population | Expenditure limit |
|----------------------------------|----------------------|
| Up to 4,999 | $3,500 |
| 5,000 – 9,999 | $7,000 |
| 10,000 – 19,999 | $14,000 |
| 20,000 – 39,999 | $20,000 |
| 40,000 – 59,999 | $30,000 |
| 60,000 – 79,999 | $40,000 |
| 80,000 – 99,999 | $50,000 |
| 100,000 – 149,999 | $55,000 |
| 150,000 – 249,999 | $60,000 |
| 250,000 – 999,999 | $70,000 |
| 1,000,000 or more | $100,000* |

*plus 50 cents for each elector

For example, a candidate for councillor of Kawerau Māori Ward (which has a population in the range of up to 4,999) can spend up to $3,500 inclusive of GST.

If you stand for more than one position, the amount you can spend is the highest amount for one position. You cannot add positions together to allow you to spend more than the limit

Please note any expenditure made by a candidate for an election campaign is funded by the candidate and is not refundable by Council to the candidate.

All candidates are required to lodge an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected (by 11 December 2025).

If a candidate is outside New Zealand on this day, the return must be filed within 76 days after the day on which the successful candidates are declared to be elected.

If a return is not submitted within the required time period, the non-return will be advised to the New Zealand Police for enforcement.

If a candidate is eligible for a refund of the nomination fee, the return needs to be received before the fee is refunded.

Q20: Can I raise campaign funds from donations, and can I claim expenses?

A20: Yes, you can raise funds and claim expenses from your campaign. There is very specific legislation about donations and expenses which you need to abide by. For more information go to Local Electoral Act 2001, sections 103A – 112F.

Q21: Can people already elected onto Kawerau District Council use Council resources to campaign?

A21: No, elected members cannot use Council resources for their campaigns.

Q22: Are there any rules about using social media?

A22: Yes. Councils have policies or guidelines for web and social media use related to campaigning. They will not permit Council social media pages to be used by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for electioneering or campaigning in the three months before election day. This includes tagging Council in social media posts. Council monitors its online sites and take down any campaign related posts.

Q23: Can I help people vote or collect their voting documents to send in?

A23: No, it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000 if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising the elector as to how they should vote.

Candidates or their assistants should not collect voting documents from electors. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer.

Candidates and their assistants should be particularly careful if campaigning occurs in facilities such as rest homes or hospitals.

Q24: When do nominations open and close?

A24: Nominations open on Friday 4 July 2025 and close at noon on Friday 1 August 2025.

It is strongly recommended that candidates do not leave lodgement of their nomination until the last day. There may be insufficient time to rectify any error with the nomination, if lodgement occurs on Friday 1 August 2025.

Q25: Where can I obtain a nomination paper?

A25: From 4 July 2025 nominations can be completed and submitted online at: esp.electionservices.co.nz/lge2025/KW/

A35: Is it before Monday 22 September 2025 and you believe you are correctly registered on the electoral roll?

Yes Please wait until the mail has been delivered on Monday 22 September 2025. If your voting document is not received, then please call the electoral office on 0800 922 822 and request a special vote.

0r

Is it after Monday 22 September 2025 and you believe you are correctly registered on electoral roll?

Yes
You will need to apply for a special vote. For special vote availability, refer Q49.

Or

Is it after Monday 22 September 2025 and you believe you are not correctly registered on the electoral roll?

Yes

You will need to complete a
Parliamentary Electoral Roll
enrolment form. These are available online at www.vote.nz or phone 0800 36 76 56 to have one posted to you with a return envelope.

You will also need to apply for a special vote. For special vote availability, refer Q49.

- Q36: I didn't receive my voting document, so I called and got a special vote. Now I have two voting documents. Which one should I use?
- A36: Use the original one and destroy the special vote.
- Q37: I received a voting document for a member of my family (e.g. child, parent) and have Power of Attorney for that person. Can I vote on behalf of that person?
- A37: No, you are not allowed to vote on behalf of that person as Attorney.

- A39: Write GNA (Gone No Address) on the envelope and put it back in the post.
- Q40: What is that barcode that I can see through the return envelope or on the front of the voting document?
- A40: It is a legal requirement to scan the barcode and mark the electoral roll to indicate the person has voted. This is to ensure that we do not receive two votes from the same person.

Q41: How do you ensure the secrecy of my vote?

A41: Returned envelopes containing a voting document cannot be opened until there is a justice of the peace (JP) present. The JP is required to sign off that the processes used by the electoral officer meet the legal requirements.

Note that the voter's name is not shown on the voting document.

When the envelope is opened the only thing the electoral office is looking for is that the vote for each election is valid.

This means that we are making sure that the voter's intention is clear and the voter has not ticked or marked more more candidates than the number of vacancies.

Q42: Do I have to vote? I don't know any of these candidates.

A42: No, you don't have to vote, but we do encourage you to vote and exercise your democratic right.

You don't have to vote in all elections. But your vote is important because the people elected will be responsible for making decisions about what happens in your community for the next three years.

To help you get to know about the candidates:

- → candidate meetings may be held in your community and by attending you can find out what policies the different candidates are advocating for;
- → a candidate profile booklet comes with the voting document and this will include a photo and a statement from each candidate if these have been provided. This information will also be available on the Council's website (www.kaweraudc.govt.nz) after nominations close (expected 8 August 2025);
- → candidates may have their own website, social media page(s), videos, advertise in local newspapers or send out information to letterboxes in your area;

ightarrow local media are likely to cover information about the election.

Q43: Do I have to post my voting document back?

A43: You can post it but make sure you have it in the mail by Tuesday 7 October 2025 to ensure it gets back to us in time (by 12 noon Saturday 11 October 2025).

A50: You will need to apply for a special vote. For special vote availability, refer Q49.

Q51: Do I have to vote in all elections for the maximum number of candidates permitted?

Will my votes be counted if I don't vote for the maximum number of candidates permitted in all the elections on my voting document?

A51: You can vote for as many candidates as you want to but not more than the number of positions available on the voting document. So, if you are electing one ward councillor then you can vote for one candidate. For FPP you tick the candidate you want to elect.

You can decide not to vote for one or more of the different elections on your voting document. This does not invalidate votes for other elections on your voting document.

For more information about FPP refer to Q58.

Q52: Why can't I vote for a certain candidate who is standing for a different ward or other election?

A52: You can only vote for the elections relevant to the area in which you live or the electoral roll you are on.

You cannot vote for a candidate who is standing for example in another ward, because you are not an elector of that other ward.

Similarly, you cannot vote for a candidate who is standing in the general ward if you are on the Māori Electoral Roll and voting for the Māori ward.

Q53: Why are my partner's document and mine different? There are more/less things to vote for, or the list of candidates is different.

A53: Depending on which electoral roll you are on (Māori or general), your voting entitlements may differ from others in your household.

In addition, the candidates' names for the Bay of Plenty Regional Council elections are listed randomly.

For any other differences, you will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q54: I have received two voting documents. What shall I do?

A54: You will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q55: Do the staff working on the election know who I voted for?

A55: No, your vote remains secret under the required separate roll scrutiny and vote counting procedures.

Q56: Can I help someone fill out their voting document?

A56: Under the Local Electoral Act 2001, you cannot interfere with or influence any person as to how they should vote.

An elector who is physically impaired, visually impaired or for whom English is a second language, can direct a person to assist them to vote. The person assisting must only act as directed by the elector.

Telephone voting will be available for electors with disabilities. To access this service.

electors will need to call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Q57: What happens to all the voting documents after the elections?

A57: They are delivered to the Whakatāne District Court and kept for 21 days after public notice is given declaring the result of the election, so that the Court can access them should there be any application for a recount or petition for inquiry.

After this time, or the completion of any recount or enquiry, the Court is responsible for destroying them.

Q58: What is FPP and how do I vote in an FPP election?

A58: FPP stands for first past the post voting system and is used for the Kawerau District Council and the Bay of Plenty Regional Council elections.

The candidate or candidates who get the most votes wins.

You should mark those you want to vote for with a tick in the circle. Do not vote for more than the number of candidates shown in the instructions on your voting document.

Q59: What is STV and how do I vote in an STV election?

A59: STV is not used for either the Kawerau District Council or the Bay of Plenty Regional Council.

STV stands for single transferable voting and is a preferential system of voting where you can rank as few or as many candidates as you like.

For more information about STV, go to www.stv.govt.nz.

→ MEMBERS

Q63: When do elected members take up their roles?

A63: Elected members take up office the day after the official results have been declared by public notice. However, members cannot act until they have sworn the oath of office which is usually at the first meeting of the council. This first meeting is usually held as soon as practicable after the official results are published.

Q64: Who are elected members responsible to?

A64: Ultimately the elected members are responsible to the local community. The Minister of Local Government and the Auditor–General do have a role in ensuring that council follows the law.

Q65: Would being an elected member take up much time?

A65: Being an elected member is a busy job that often involves meetings, events and speaking with community members outside of normal business hours. Flexibility and the ability to prioritise and manage time effectively are essential. This includes balancing a high volume of reading, paperwork and emails with a schedule of meetings and public commitments.

As a consequence, the mayor is considered a fulltime job and councillors are generally part time jobs.

Q66: Do elected members get paid and, if so, how much?

A66: The Remuneration Authority sets a remuneration pool. The newly elected council will decide how to apply the pool of funding. Some expenses are also reimbursed.

As an indication, the remuneration as of 1 July 2024 was:

| Office | Annual Remuneration |
|--|------------------------|
| Mayor | $111,214 |
| Deputy Mayor | $43,849 |
| Chair Regulatory and Services Committee | $39,151 |
| Councillor (with no additional responsibilities) | $31,322 |
| Councillor (minimum allowable remuneration) | $21,741 |

Local Government Members (2024/25) Determination 2024, Schedule of Remuneration-part 2

For further information on remuneration refer to: www.remauthority.govt.nz.

Q67: How many elected members are there?

A67: The Kawerau District Council will be made up of:

- → mayor (elected 'at large')
- → 8 councillors (2 elected 'at large', 3 elected from the Kawerau Māori Ward and 3 elected from the Kawerau General Ward).

Refer Q5 for more information.

⇒ ELECTION SIGNS

Q68: What are the requirements for election signs?

A68: Rules about election signs are found in the Local Electoral Act 2001 and council's election signs policy—both of which must be complied with.

Local Electoral Act 2001:

All election material, including signs and hoardings, must show an authorisation statement (name and contact details of the candidate or the candidate's agent.) Not to do so is an electoral offence. Refer to the Local Electoral Act 2001, section 113.

State Highway corridors:

All local government election signs located on or adjacent to a state highway require the written consent of the New Zealand Transport Agency Waka Kotahi. Refer NZTA Planning Policy Manual (esp sections 7.3 and 8).

Local Authority:

Kawerau District Council is responsible for regulating when, where and how signs can be displayed in the district.

Council's Policy on Election Signs contains rules for erecting election signage in the Kawerau district and is summarised below.

General

Use non-metallic stakes only to erect signs, and ensure you are aware of any services that may be underground.

For further information relating to Council's election sign rules refer to Council's Policy on Election Signs in full.

Q69: I have a complaint about the electoral signage. What should I do?

A69: If the signs don't have the required authorisation on them, call the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

If the signs are located where they should not be, or have been pulled over or damaged, call the Council on 07 306 9009.
