 The draft Gambling Venues Policy has merged two existing policies into on document and outlines: the objective for the Gambling Venues Policy; and the policy is a sinking lid policy in that no new class 4 venues or gaming machines may be established; and one TAB venue may be established within the central business district (does not include TAB terminals in other venues)
What we'd like to know Council is proposing the Draft Gambling Venues Policy as a means to reduce gambling harm by control growth, while still enabling those who wish to participate, to do so.
Do you support Council maintaining the sinking lid policy, which means no new venues may be established in Kawerau, even when one closes? Please tick your preferred option and provide any other feedback in the comments section below.
Yes No
